Although defeated in their effort to bring the headquarters of the brother-bood to Washington at the present, National Capital boosters have not lost heart and declare that they are satisfied in having kept any other city from gaining the honor. They claim that the advantages of Washington were put squarely to the convention, and that they will crossalize before the next convention. They claim that the only thing that kept Washington from gaining the headquarters at the present time was that the hrotherhood had not sufficient time to prepare for a change.

Resolutions condemning the alleged practice of a number of the cafe proprietors and druggiets or overcharging delegates to the convention were passed yesterday. It is claimed that a number of the cafes in the vicinity or the Arcade charge the delegates lo cents for a meal they ordinarily serve for 25 cents, It is also alleged that a number of druggists pick out the delegates by their badges and charge them 18 cents for soda which ordinarily sells for a nickel.
